Customer Reviews

The plot continues to simmer, and tension are beginning to rise. The art is exquisite, and the main characters are certainly beautiful. We learn more about their past, and slowly and surprisingly, the boys begin to bond over stilted interactions mixed with passionate stares. Jiwoon continues to pursue Soohan, with clumsy questions and distressing confessions, and Soohan begins to understand why the lovely Jiwoon is so weird and downright socially inept. Jiwoon is confused by his own feelings, telling Soohan that he "likes his eyes" and looking at Soohan makes him "feel good," but he doesn't know what to do since it's the first time he has ever felt like this. Why is Jiwoon like he is, and will Soohan respond to his feelings? This manhwa is worth repeat readings, for sure.

Mesmerizing. The art carries the weight of the story almost all by its brilliant self. The intensity building up. The few words in are more like a complement to it, a way to get the point a little farther across. But oh my fck, the beautiful, compelling art... can't get enough. And those eyes...

The story may be slow paced, but is very lacking in well character depth and plot development for me. I wasn't interested in the characters, and the character reasoning for their feelings seemed very bland. The art may be nice, but not enough for me to remain interested in the plot development. This may be good for some, but not for me.

Cute story!

They say to not judge a book by its cover, but you can do so with this entire series. The raw emotions you see are exactly what you'll get.

Fabulous series - buy all books at once, you won't regret it. I hope to find more written by Kyungha Yi.
