This is a very nice collection of Irish songs. The book is just larger than half a sheet of copy paper and not terribly thick. It does have many interesting photos to give the book some character, and the lyrics and music are easily read. I have some trouble getting the book to lay open flat, but that is not a real problem, so I am keeping at 5 stars. Overall, the construction and quality of the book is great, and the content is as advertised (you can see the songs included in the "look Inside" feature). I have 3 of the 4 books in his series and they are all quite wonderful.

Love this little book of Irish songs!

very good
