I have always like using the National Geographic maps. Whether it was during our hikes in Glacier NP, Yellowstone and with this map most recently starting our adventure of climbing 14ers in Colorado. The waterproofness is great and I have yet to have one rip despite the frequent times I fold, unfold and manipulate the map into different shapes to accommodate my needs. Highly recommend these maps!

The Trails Illustrated maps are high quality trail maps.

We used this map for our adventures in Great Sand Dunes Park and some offroading in the preserve. It was great! Wish it included backcountry campsites in the preserve though

Good price and provides the info I need to hike the Sangre de Cristo Mountains good map, very helpful for our Colorado trip to this area.

Love this map. A friend liked it so much I ordered one more as a gift for him.

Great detailed map while backpacking my dad and I missed a turn on the trail due to wind blowing sand and covering up the trail we found our way back to the trail

As advertised
