Customer Reviews

Think Nevada is nothing more than vast stretches of desert in between Reno and Las Vegas? Think again. From the fascinating history of the Wild West to rugged outdoor recreation opportunities, the Silver State has much to offer. Get to the heart of things with Globe Pequot's Off the Beaten Path series. Devoted to travelers with a taste for the unique, this easy-to-use guide will help you discover the hidden places in Nevada that most tourists miss - out-of-the-way finds that liven up a week's vacation, a day trip, or an afternoon. "While traveling the Extraterrestrial Highway, be sure to stop at the Little A'le'Inn in Rachel. The restaurant, motel, gift shop, and UFO seminar headquarters features racks of UFO T-shirts, caps, and books. You can't miss it - look for the building with the picture of an alien and an earthlings welcome sign on it. Owners Pat and Joe Travis will serve you up an Alien Burger or some other out-of-this-world fare. Or order a Beam Me Up Scotty beverage, which is reported to help the staunchest skeptic to see UFOs."

Heidi Knapp Rinella is a features writer and restaurant critic for the Las Vegas Review-Journal. She resides in Henderson, Nevada.

This book does indeed document lots of goodies that lie "Off The Beaten Path" in Nevada. But it does not cover everything, and I did feel left wanting for more. For example, the region between Las Vegas and the Arizona border has some amazing natural beauty and amazing and seldom-visited sites but it is mostly glossed over here. Nevertheless, for those looking for the true character and amazing things to be discovered in the beautiful state that is Nevada, this is a good place to start.
