Big-League Break (Rookies)

Synopsis

Well, it's official, sports fans! Roberto "Magic" Ramirez. Dave "DT" Green, and Glen "Scrapper" Mitchell have made it to the majors! Soon after they got promoted to their pro clubs' AAA teams, our three Rosemont aces got the "big call." DT Green should end Boston's slow season start with his cannon shots. Chicago's Cominsky Park won't be the same after Mitchell bums up the infield. And Ramirez's fastball will more than make up for the surprise retirement of L.A. pitcher Ted Valenti. Rosemont is proud of its rookies. Let's just hope the big time doesn't go to their heads

I used to love this book series growing up. It deserves more respect and recognition from the general public. I wish these books were more abundant in libraries and online so that my students had easy access to them. Great way to get more sports-minded kids reading. -Mr. Jeffrey

All the books in the Rookies baseball series are great, especially this one. Fun, easy reading, there are no great surprises. The reader really gets to feel like they know the main characters, making it a great reading experience. I suggest you read it if you like baseball.
