I'm only now starting chapter 4. The information so far has been good, but there have been so many typos that it really detracts from the message. Kindle edition needs some definite editing!

I just looked over this book, its slightly outdated however it has great ideas and thoughts you could easily overlook.

I could have gotten most of this information out of a wedding planning book. I was hoping for more examples of vows.

This book is helpful if your wedding was small or you eloped. It was basically how to plan a huge wedding, but make it a vow renewal. I was looking for interesting and unique ideas and dos and don'ts. There basically aren't any dos/don'ts. It is also a little outdated.

We are doing a vow renewal service next year for our 50th anniversary, and I found this to be quite useful.

I'm sure it would have worked better if I were a big fancy renewal ceremony, but mine was rather "impromptu", and I don't think I'll be doing it again.

I did not realize that this book was a "start to finish" wedding planner. I was more interested in standard sermons and vows. It is still a good book for someone who needs more information than I did.

Awesome pointers for an awesome day!!
