Yummy recipes that didn't taste VeganGreat cookbook for both those just getting into the vegan lifestyle and for the old pros. Healthy, colorful and easy to prepare recipes. The pictures were vibrant, the flavors spot on and even fooled some of the carnivores in the house! Looking forward to trying more recipes very soon. Delicious and super easy. I'm not a vegan, but this has allowed me to ease into a diet with more options for healthier choices. Looks Good This has some recipes that I'll probably try this fall and winter. Pretty good collection but several recipes called for ingredients I probably can't buy at my rural grocery store.

One pan, pot, skillet, or slow-cooker is all you need to prepare these no-fuss vegan family dinners. For a hearty meal that requires minimal clean-up, one-pot recipes are perfect for weeknight suppers. And while it may seem time consuming to prepare real food at home, you will soon discover that you can cook a balanced, nutritious one-pot dinner in the same amount of time you'd need to order a takeout. From soups and stews, to simple casseroles and one-pot pasta dishes, all you need to do is simply prepare your favorite vegetables, legumes or grains, throw them together with some superfood herbs and spices in a single pot, skillet or slow cooker and relax until it's time to serve- it doesn't get easier than that!

Liked the variety and ease of making the recipes. Nice to have meatless meals for a change.

Delicious and super easy. I'm not a vegan, but this has allowed me to ease into a diet with more options for healthier choices.

Filled with good ideas.

Amazing!

Every recipe calls for 3 tablespoons of olive oil!!! I can leave it out but how is that healthy? Half the recipes are soup, the rest are stews with a couple of rice dishes. All of the "bonus" recipes are smoothies. I bookmarked one recipe. That was an expensive recipe.
