Undisclosed Files Of The Police: Cases From The Archives Of The NYPD From 1831 To The Present

Synopsis

More than 175 years of true crimes culled from the city's police blotter, told through startling, rarely seen images and insightful text by two NYPD officers and a NYC crime reporter. From atrocities that occurred before the establishment of New York's police force in 1845 through the terrorist attack on the World Trade Center in 2001 to the present day, this visual history is an insider's look at more than 80 real-life crimes that shocked the nation, from arson to gangland murders, robberies, serial killers, bombings, and kidnappings, including: Architect Stanford White's fatal shooting at Madison Square Garden over his deflowering of a teenage chorus girl. The anarchist bombing of Wall Street in 1920, which killed 39 people and injured hundreds more with flying shrapnel. The 1928 hit at the Park Sheraton Hotel on mobster Arnold Rothstein, who died refusing to name his shooter. Kitty Genovese's 1964 senseless stabbing, famously witnessed by dozen of bystanders who did not intervene. Son of Sam, a serial killer who eluded police for months while terrorizing the city, was finally apprehended through a simple parking ticket. Perfect for crime buffs, urban historians, and fans of Serial and Making of a Murderer, this riveting collection details New York's most startling and unsettling crimes through behind-the-scenes analysis of investigations and more than 500 revealing photographs.

"An extensive buffet of New York City's real crime history, served up in spicy bite-sized portions." —Raymond W. Kelly, Former NYC Police Commissioner

Fact rivals fiction in this gritty, well-researched collection, an insiders' look at more than 175 years of New York's most infamous crimes. The authors - NYPD Lieutenant Bernard Whalen, crime reporter Philip Messing and retired Detective, Robert Mladinich -- have detailed a history of many of the city's most notorious and zaniest capers."~c~ Nicholas Pileggi, author of the bestsellers Casino and Wiseguy

Bernard J. Whalen is a lieutenant in the NYPD, where he has served for more than 34 years. He has published two books, The NYPD's First Fifty Years and the novel Justifiable Homicide. He lives in New York. Philip Messing has been a journalist who has covered crime and law enforcement for more than 35 years. He is a veteran staff reporter for the New York Post and lives in New York. Robert Mladinich is a retired NYPD detective, who has named Cop of the Year in 1985. He has written a number of true crime books, including From the Mouth of the Monster: The Joel Rifkin Story, as well as articles for magazines including Playboy and Details. He is also the writer/editor for Frontline, a publication of the NYC Sergeants Benevolent Association. He lives in New York.

I found this to be a very interesting read, from the early years up to the present! I would recommend this book to anyone who enjoys this genre!

I enjoy reading about true crime stories particularly those in New York and Chicago regarding the mobsters and this book provides several stories not mob related of which I remember taking place that I haven't found in other books. The photos in the book are quite compelling many of which are full-page and in black-and-white. The authors have made excellent choices in choosing which ones to include although I would have liked to have the mob-hits of Joey Gallo and Carmine Galante included in the book as well. I found this book to be an excellent coffee table book and a worthy addition to one's true crime library.

binding came apart, very poorly made

Fair...the crimes that were the juicier ones I already knew about...

Very interesting

Fascinating book.

fine

great gift
