Lovable Livable Home: How To Add Beauty, Get Organized, And Make Your House Work For You

Synopsis

This New York Times bestselling book is packed with thoughtful advice and inspiring photos to help you create a home filled with beauty and meaning. In the three years since Sherry and John Petersik wrote their bestselling book Young House Love, they have bought a new house and had a new baby, and they have seen their design perspective evolve right along with their family. In their latest book, they've set out to prove that just because you have kids or pets doesn't mean you're sentenced to floors overrun with toys or furniture covered in plastic. Through never-before-seen makeovers in the Petersiks' own house, doable DIY projects, and a gallery of other inspiring spaces, Lovable Livable Home shows how beautiful homes can be functional too.

Customer Reviews

"Find the sweet spot where form, function and meaning align. This philosophy is at the center of the book, which is as much about imbuing the nooks and crannies of your home with personal significance as it is about practicality and aesthetics." • Washington Post
"There's no point in showing you stunningly designed spaces if you can't actually do them. These ideas from Sherry and John Petersik . . . are the cure for decor boredom, no handyman required." • Redbook
"Family-friendly, do-it-yourself home decorating. . . . Modern and budget-sensitive with comfortable, highly functional rooms that are not overdecorated. The authors hit the mark on relaxed living in theory and execution. — Publishers Weekly — “The authors . . . show how to create a comfortable, stylish abode to accommodate families (and their pets) of all sizes, ages, and physical limitations. Over 300 color photographs demonstrate how these DIYers personalize and organize their living, eating, sleeping, washing, entry, working, and play spaces. Included are a number of simple projects.” — Library Journal

Sherry and John Petersik are the married duo who chronicled their home improvement adventures on the hit DIY blog Young House Love, which spawned a New York Times bestselling book of the same name, as well as product lines sold by Target, Home Depot, and more. They live in Richmond, Virginia, with their two young children and a feisty Chihuahua named Burger.

John and Sherry are great friends in this book. It's wonderful and help all of us who are DIY challenged see that some changes are attainable.

Not really for an interior design pro, but a great gift for a young couple or a new homeowner. Focuses on family.

I love YHL and followed them since the beginning. The book is great for about 10 minutes. I wanted to support them, I'm glad I purchased but it's a bit lacking for unique ideas. There could be more. Flipped through it in a breeze, like a picture book.

I'm a HUGE YHL fan (since the beginning) so I don't know if there was any way I wouldn't buy this but I was almost surprised how much I liked it. Nice easy read and had quite a few original ideas. I've been back to it several times to do a project. The picture/cross stitch ornament idea is a particular favorite.

Had to buy this book to see the content I missed since YHL stopped blogging religiously. If you enjoyed reading their posts (I love the writing part almost even more than the pictures - they have a great style), this is the purchase for you!

A really good "how to" book on DIY projects and Home Decor. I have been following the blog for years and thought it would be nice to have their book. I love tangible items where I can dog ear pages and go back to time and time again. Also, I wanted to support their efforts.

This is a beautiful book! Full of great ideas that are realistic and budget friendly, I now have a new List of DIY projects to help make our house feel like ours. John and Sherrie are my go-to peeps for home design ideas!

Love the authors' writing style - it really feels like they are talking and having a conversation with the reader and I love their sense of humor. I previously bought their first book and this one is even better! Love all of the images and tips!
