Customer Reviews

These are poorly made...the pages are way too small for the items. I've used other Dot-to-Dot by Thomas Pavitte and LOVED them. The way these dots are done with using the same dot having up to 4 different numbers makes it super confusing.

Love Star Wars and could not wait for this dot to dot book. Numbers are so small you do need a magnifying glass and if you have a color perception problem... this could be an added challenge. Many of the puzzles are in two very faint colors. I'm depending on the force being with me to be able to do this.

A great dot to dot art book with a major flaw: the pages are double sided and thin! If you wanted to rip a page out to display, there goes one of the puzzles on the other side. Plus with the thin pages your artwork can bleed on the other side. If the book had one sided art pages that were a bit thicker, the book would be 5 stars. Otherwise, with about 100 pages of complex dot to dots, this should last awhile. I suggest using a pencil, lightly, instead of a pen, in case you make any errors. Otherwise, the scenes to create are great and span all of the 6 original films.

I am an adult who enjoys completing the more challenging dot to dot collections out there. This one was a disappointment. The numbers are EXTREMELY small. You are afraid to blink so you don't lose your spot. Several times numbers will be stacked by a single dot. You are supposed to reuse the dot, but quite often your pen draws through numbers and it is hard to see when you come back to it. We have found more than one puzzle with numbers missing a dot and even puzzles skipping numbers entirely! I was excited about the Star Wars theme, but this one is not much fun.

good puzzles. sometimes hard to follow when there was one dot with multiple numbers associated with it.

Awesome book...u really don't know how much time ur spending while doing the pictures till its done print for the numbers- WAY TOO SMALL- will never ever get a dot to dot book- TOO LIGHT ON THE PRINT, will use as a scetch pad, & a remembrance as to never get a dot to dot thru the mail - NEVER AGAIN!!!
