Customer Reviews

It was much too narrow in its scope. I've owned much better over the years. Like all else, quality is diminishing.

Lots of great info .. not just pricing ..

Wanted to see more furniture

Expected the guide to cover more items per category; although, it's understandable that a person couldn't possibly cover all items in all collectibles categories.

Compared to the 2014-15 edition it has the same layout on the page including the comments and an average of 7 items per page. You won't find a large selection in any category but enough to get an idea of pricing. I have several of Judith Miller's books and it seems like you have to have a few years worth to cover all the categories. For the person who really wants to get into collecting, there are 2 Judith Miller books that I would highly recommend: Miller's Antiques Encyclopedia and Decorative Arts. They are as detailed as they are large with fabulous photography. Compared to the 2014-15 edition: Categories deleted- Art Deco, Autographs, Automobilia, Beer cans, Chess, Chinese collectibles, Costume jewelry, Disneyana, 50s & 60s, Fishing, Instruments, Kitchen, Marbles, Marine, Meteorites, Plastics and bakeware, Signs, Telephones, Tiles, Tools, Weird & wonderful Categories added- Aeronautica, Arcade machines, Fashion, Fossils, Lighting, Mechanical banks & music, Scent bottles, Scientific instruments, Stoves, Tribal art
