Brittany With Kids (Footprint Travel With Kids)

Synopsis

Brittany with Kids is chock-full of information for fun activities, providing the perfect balance of practical advice and inspirational ideas for your stay in Brittany. It covers all the best activities, sights, and big days out, along with the best places to stay and to eat. Gorgeous photos highlight Footprintâ™s family holiday favorites. If youâ™re looking for an escape on a working honey farm or a self-catering farmhouse by the sea, our favorite holiday recommendations will inspire you. The guide is divided into four sections—Finistere, Ille-Et-Vilaine, Cote Dâ™Armour, and Morbihan—with each section providing information on a tremendous array of activities and on all the major sights as well as lesser-known attractions. Insider information ensures you the best value for your stay, and suggested reads for kids and adults will whet your appetite before you depart. Last but not least, each section includes fabulous ideas for rainy-day fun.

Customer Reviews

“One of those rare finds: a practical family guide as well as an entertaining read.” The Independent on Sunday
“The perfect book to have to hand when planning your familyâ™s annual holiday.” Junior magazine
“A genuine must-have for parents with itchy feet everywhere.” Angels & Urchins magazine

Jane Anderson has been a busy travel writer and photographer for 15 years contributing to publications as varied as the Sunday Times Travel Magazine to Elle. She has been travel editor at

You & Your Wedding Magazine and Junior Pregnancy & Baby and is the author of A Place to Wed. With two children of her own now, family travel is uppermost in her life and work. Her young kids have already experienced everything from helicopter rides over the coral reefs of the Cayman Islands to eco houses in Normandy, but Britain remains at the heart of her family adventures.
