The Sunna Of The Prophet

Synopsis

The People of Fiqh versus the People of Hadith Shaykh Muhammad Al Ghazali was one of the most influential Islamic scholars of the twentieth century. Born in Buhayra, Egypt in 1223/1917, he eventually entered the Faculty of Usul ad-Din in the university of Al Azhar. In the course of his life, he was imam and lecturer at al-Maktaba al-Khadra in Cairo, a member of the Muslim Brotherhood and close associate of Hasan al-Banna, Undersecretary for Islamic Da'wa in the Egyptian Ministry of Awqaf, and held numerous other posts and teaching positions. He Published over sixty books. He died in 1416/1996. Having published the abridged English translation of Shaykh Muhammad al-Ghazali's seminal Qur'anic commentary under the title Journey through the Qur'an, Dar al-Taqwa have followed it with the translation of a second important work by the shaykh about the nature of the Prophetic Sunna. This is greatly needed in the present situation when there is so much misinformation about Islam in the media, often aided and abetted by well meaning but sometimes misguided Muslims. Using many examples and his own compendious knowledge, Shaykh Muhammad shows how many hadiths have been misunderstood and misused to paint a distorted picture of Islam. With great courtesy and skill he points out the flaws in the positions adopted by extremists at both ends of the spectrum and allows the true picture of the balance and wisdom which in reality make up the Muhammadan Sunna to emerge.

Customer Reviews

As an Infidel who has actually read/studied the entire Koran and much of the Hadith and much of the Sunna and lived amongst Muslims and constructed a Masjid and mushullahs, The Sunna of the Prophet is a treasure trove of Islamic insanity and lack of logic - well worth the price just to know how those who have sworn to be your enemy and and kill/rape/enslave you and all other "unbelievers", actually think (or rather, don't think and don't reason as when laid bare, Islam is a fallacy attracting only the simple-minded/cruel).Undoubtedly, Islamists will love it as The Sunna of the Prophet simply perpetuates the various self-serving myths surrounding Islam as a: Cult/Religion/Political Force/Lifestyle/Threat to Western Civilization

Great purchase as it was exactly what I needed.

Most informative and easy to read

thanks

Interesting, but still just another version of man made stories.

Lousy. Doesn't relate anything about the Sunna, only petty arguing among supposed scholars.
