Customer Reviews

Initially I was disappointed to discover that he was not the author; however, he was honest enough to admit that he did not change a lot in the wording. I have loved the compilation he made which includes most of Charles Perrault's tales and other well-known French tales from Madame de Beaumont and Madame d'Aulnoy as well. Finally I would recommend the book as a gathering of the best French tales of the XVII century, not as an unknown 'new' book from Collodi. Marie-Laure

Adorable book! The cute cover pulled me in and the test run sealed the deal!! I am self taught and reading fun books keep me on my toes. It may be read to children but adults need to read to them until they can on their own!

I was watching a neighbor's kids and we loaded up the Kindle with things to keep them entertained; this was one of their favorites!

Perfecto!
