Richard Bertinet has more than 20 years experience in the kitchen, baking, consulting, and teaching. In 2005 he set up The Bertinet Kitchen cookery school in Bath, which now attracts people from all over the world to participate in his classes. His first book, Dough, was awarded The Guild of Food Writers Award for Best First Book, the Julia Child Award for the Best First Book, and the James Beard Award for Best Book Baking and Desserts. Crust was given a World Gourmand Award for the Best British Book on Baking. His other books are Cook and Pastry.

It has classic recipes, but they are well explained with a little twist and nice combinations that would provide a base for you to add more and imagine other varieties and combinations

Love the mouth-watering recipes! They are not impossible to do at home. The only reason I gave 1 star less because photos aren't included in all or most recipes. It would be nice to see how the baked goods look like with the help of photos. Other than lack of photos, I have nothing to complain. For American readers, the recipes use metric measurement as the author is from UK. However, I'm very familiar with using metric measurement when baking. So, I don't see it as a problem.

Very good book for those who want to take "patisserie" seriously!
