Norman Bridwell is the author and illustrator of numerous children's books, including the beloved Clifford series, which has over 126 million copies in print, in 13 languages! He lives in Edgartown, MA with his wife Norma. They have two children, son, Tim, and daughter, Emily Elizabeth.

I have a Clifford the Big Red Dog fanatic in my house, and own several of his stories. I had high hopes for this book, but wasn't really impressed with it. It does talk about / teach manners; however, there is not an engaging story to go along with it. My 3 year old much prefers the other Clifford books in our collection. Wouldn't purchase again or recommend to a friend.

I love ready all Clifford books.

Nice intro to manners for young kids!

A fun intro to manners

Good content

Our kids love the Clifford books and this was a good teaching type book and adds to their little library. I also appreciate it coming on time and in good condition.

My son absolutely loves Clifford! So glad we bought this along with other Clifford books/movies. We will buy more soon

We enjoy reading Clifford manners. Entertaining yet educative for the toddler. I know some of the "going to the movies" example is foreign to the young mind, but we replaced it with some other examples like 'when someone's on the phone', 'someone else is watching something and you need to pass by'. In fact our son picked up "excuse me" pretty fast because of this...Definitely recommend this and the clifford series in general, especially if your child loves pets.
