Customer Reviews

"Listing of collections is especially valuable as it pulls together...a host of potentially valuable resources, annotating each one carefully." -- Communication Booknotes Quarterly, Spring 2006
An amazing achievement to have located all that material and put it into a form so easy to use. -- Fuller French, The Broadcast ARTS Library
The real pleasure of this book lies in discovering the wealth of material scattered around the country in smaller facilities. -- Chuck Howell, Curator, Library of American Broadcasting, College Park, MD
This guide is a wonderful new resource for anyone interested in research on Old Time Radio. -- Jeanette M. Berard, Curator, American Radio Archives, Thousand Oaks Public Library

The book also includes leads to the personal papers and books about individuals who appeared on or wrote for radio during the golden age but who may be better known for other aspects of their careers, including actors, singers, writers, etc.
