Customer Reviews

Born from a long line of artists and designers, Di Kim is no stranger to the world of creative art. With parents, siblings, and other close relatives all with careers in the design industry, it was only natural for Di eventually to follow suit. Combining her love of fashion and style with a Do-It-Yourself mantra, this self-taught jewelry designer began creating pieces from her home in Houston, Texas. She currently sells her jewelry online through Etsy, as well as at local boutiques, gift markets, and trade shows.

Beautiful, simple and elegant designs. Love this book. Directions are very clear...important to me as a beginner. I purchased some other books which I could not make heads nor tails out of the directions, but this one is clear in writing and the beautiful photography makes following the directions a cinch. Wonderful ideas.

The book has some pretty designs, but if you are looking for something challenging or complex you may be disappointed. Many of the bracelets feature only one focal bead or gemstone and are fairly basic overall. As with the cover photograph, all designs showed the front of the bracelet in focus, but the rest was "fuzzy". It may be a personal preference, but I would prefer to see the entire bracelet clearly.

Nice book, more for the teen/tween age group, (highly recommend for that age group), but has inspirations for even a more advances jewelry maker. I bought for inspirations on pieces I am designing and found some tips that helped. I believe you can learn something from everyone, no matter what your age or experience level.

very disappointed in the book. it did not meet my needs, it basically to make the same bracelets over and over .. one is better off searching the internet for instructions and ideas

Great ideas for making bracelets.

I am so happy I purchased this book. I love the simplicity of the various projects. I have two projects I am working on simultaneously. I recommend for all those beginning their jewelry journey.

Some great ideas in this book. Love it!

Great ideas. Easy to follow directions.
