Salt River

Synopsis

Tom Pook is growing up in the 1920s in a one-room house hidden in the roadless backwaters of New Zealand's Kaipara Harbour. At fourteen he can neither read nor write, but he's tough and capable and, when his parents head north for a week, they leave him in charge of his seven younger brothers and sisters. Based on a true story, this book for ten- to fourteen-year-olds won a national prize, the Tom Fitzgibbon Award.
