Customer Reviews

This calendar has quotes, proverbs, quick stretches, and mindfulness/breathing cues. it's a grab bag of zen for the day. i wish it was less quotes and more yoga, but the calendar tells me the dates and gives me little yogic tidbits so I'm not complaining. On the back of each page, it has a sudoku puzzle, word scramble or interesting fact. black and white.

There's more to each page than a "date". Simple Yoga hints, brain games, and quotable quotes are included for each day of the year. Though printed on re-cycled paper, the contents are not meant to be pieces of artful photography.

This calendar has little yoga, and almost none that a person who has been practicing for a month wouldn't know. Many days have tips about relaxation rather than yoga poses, and weekends typically have quotes. Definitely disappointed by this calendar. Quick Fix Relaxation would have been a more appropriate title.

On my work desk to combat stress from sitting to much;-)

Given as a gift. Nice daily reminder to my daughters to breathe, stretch, relax & take one moment at a time :)

This is a piece of fluff-- not a yoga calendar. Content like: Pre-Work Pampering/Great Hair Day, with instructions for massaging apple cider on your head.... Or, Treat yourself to a stimulating herbal-tea steam while you return calls." Or..."Keep your favorite moisturizer at your desk, etc..." The bulk of the calendar is tips/info like this, interspersed with quotes like "Every strike brings me closer to the next home run." --Babe Ruth. Nothing to do with yoga, a real disappointment.

I agree with the above reviewer. If you are looking for a day-by-day yoga calendar full of poses, keep looking!
