Michael Zarnock has been collecting Hot Wheels cars since their inception in 1968. His private collection features more than 8,100 different Hot Wheels cars. He is a two-time Guinness World Record holder for the most different Hot Wheels cars and is considered one of the leading experts regarding Hot Wheels cars in the world. He has twice been featured in Ripley's Believe It or Not. Inducted in the Die-Cast Hall of Fame in 2009, Zarnock has written eight books on Hot Wheels cars. www.MikeZarnock.com

This book is not as complete as I had expected. It shows a lot of the cars, but only prices them in excellent condition. It also does not show the different colors that they may have come in.

While this made a delightful gift for our 9-year-old grandson, it probably wouldn't satisfy die-hard collectors. As many price guides, it is only that: a guide. However, our grandson was happy to see that he had some of the cars listed in the book, although his are certainly not in collectible condition as most were bought very used at yard sales.

Smaller in size than I thought it would be, but tells me alot

The guide is very limited, does not describe variations.

Hard for me to use and because of poor eye sight its hard for me to read because book is so small. Wish it had a users manual inside to make it easier to use.

Very handy little guide to help amateur collectors like myself know what we are looking at. Small pocket size makes it easy to bring on your flea market/antique shop shopping runs.

I was looking for a book that would include every Hot Wheels variation ever produced but what I got is a value guide of production through 1999 and I suspect there are omissions prior to that year.

Bought this for my collector husband. He has been collection hot wheels for years. He loved this book.
