Paris Guide Laminated Map (English And French Edition)

Synopsis

Why City of Light and Love Romance in night time after a long day shopping and dejeuner is the favorite pastime of parisian, under lights or dark spots. From a baguette in the morning to museums in the afternoon this map will give plenty of choices, bars, bistrot, music and nightlife. More than 200 shops/boutiques/marches and gift shops are listed from expensive to cheap, for kids and adults Le Marais is one of the best area for petit boutiques, or fashionistas high end labels around St-Honoré. Chic et non at Bon Marché, Printemps, Galerie Lafayette, then head north to the puces at Clignancourt or other at the south Don't forget the Monuments and Museums, from usual Louvre the Vie Romantic museum, Rodin and the Thinker, or the Institute Arabe Restaurants To get back energy from long days of lèche-vitrine [window licking], better head to some fancy restaurants like l'Astrance, Pizza Chic, or go to bistrots like Frenchie, Rino and Spring

Customer Reviews

This is a fold out and fits into your pocket. It shows the sights and the Metro stops. It's handy to be able to find your destination and then figure out which Metro to take and where to get off. Perfect.

Nice simple inexpensive good quality useful guide.

Decent map. Very busy but informative. The tourist landmarks are clearly marked. Can't beat the price.

good

Came in handy while in Paris.

It's in French... no use for us...

Do you know what that means? Probably not. And that's your experience using this map. Most of it is in French. I'm studying the language, but certainly don't know it well enough to understand the tiny text that explains local landmarks, restaurants and metro stations The text IS tiny. The metro map is also small. As a map it's ok, but I'm sure there are better ones out there. The headline says "This map is not useful."

Smaller than we expected so it is a little hard to read the details on it. Will be handy for walking around Paris once we use a bigger map to plan in advance where we want to go.
