Where was the guide to what to see each day? Websites or phone numbers would be helpful to include. Information like, "You'll get to roam around the storied track for a mere $20 or whatever they charge." You couldn't find out what they currently charge? You couldn't list perhaps off season rates or hours or a phone number? This is information I could find and write using the internet. It doesn't appear that you have even visited. It was a complete waste of money.

Waste of money - Disappointed --- not much information --- did not help at all with my upcoming trip to Louisville
