These little magnets are really cute. When my kids were in school I would make them magnets for their lockers. These are easy to whip together and add holiday cheer to the front of the fridge.

love these

As usual Dick Martin is a great designer! Leisure Arts color graphs are good, but a few more instructional detail would help. They tend to be very generic and would be more helpful if they were more specific to these particular designs. Goodbook overall! S.A.O.
